

From: Gaye D [mailto:=]
Sent: 26 June 2018 20:11
To: 'Carla Shortt' <>
Subject: RE: Our client: Rachel Moran

Dear Carla,

Please see attached. That is the truth deposed on oath and penalty of perjury and I cannot retract or apologise for it, now or ever.

I have, at all times been as carefully truthful as I could be acted only in the public interest without personal gain or interest, and in sincere belief that is, if anything strengthened by your clients behaviour since to myself and in general (though, of course, that is just my opinion, not material fact.

Let me tell you how this is going to play.

I can't afford a solicitor and I don't have any money, but despite my significant limitations I will attempt to defend myself all the way to the supreme court and beyond as is my right.

I am sorry but I am one of those people who cares more about the truth and the public interest than my own life, no fun for you at al.

Have a nice day,

Gaye Dalton